St. Clair Street, Kaltenbrun's Block, Frankfort, Ky.

The first ice of the season formed Wednesday morning in this city.

The Water Company are rapidly laying their mains in South Frankfort.

The cool weather will cause the farmers to begin slaughtering hogs in a few days.

Mr. J. C. Coleman wishes to sell a house and lot on Steele street. Read his advertisement.

Mr. W. L. Collins bought the first of the week of J. L. Cogar, of Woodford, one car load of hogs at $4.25 per hundred.

Uncle Jack Glare has been sick at home for a week or more and did not get to church for "John C." during all the excitement.

Rev. Dr. J. McC. Blayney will preach at the chapel in Leestown tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

The election passed off very quietly here Tuesday, no one getting up enthusiasm enough to raise a shout during the whole day.

One hundred and fifty tobacco barns have been built in Scott county the past summer and nearly as many have gone up in this county.

The election news seems to have absorbed every other kind of news, and about killed business for the time being, except for news dealers.

Mr. B. V. Leinen will open a new European Restaurant in Gobler's new building, on the corner of Broadway and Lewis streets, on the 15th inst.

Rev. J. M. Lewis is conducting a protracted meeting at Mt. Vernon Church, in Fayette county. There has been 12 additions to the Church so far.

A great deal of betting was done here on the election but we have not heard of any one getting as reckless as two men in Midway—betting themselves on the result.

Elder James Fall, of Russellville, Ky., will preach at the Christian Church, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. The usual service at 7 p. m., by the pastor of the Church.

"Mealliz," the interesting and exciting drama, with Mr. Newton Gottschold in the lead role, will be produced at the Opera House on Monday evening, Nov. 10th. Reserved seats at Barrett's.

Mr. Gottschold's dual impersonation in "Mealliz" is one of the most intelligent, conscientious and strong characterizations seen here this season. He and his play deserve the popular success they are obtaining.

We are glad to be able to state that Judge R. E. Gaines, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, is a great deal better. His wife's health, we are sorry to say, is not improving very rapidly.

C. W. Finch is now ready to fill all orders for his customers and all others who delight in a pure and beautifully white lard, at a reasonable price. Call at his meat store, 329 Market street, and see his lard and price before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr. Newton Gottschold, supported by John S. Lease's Dramatic Company, have been playing at McNamee's Theatre for the last week. All the Louisville papers throughout the week speak in the highest term of Mr. Gottschold and Company.

On Thursday afternoon and night the Democrats had a big demonstration over the election news. Cannons were fired and crowds paraded the streets yelling and firing off crackers, Roman candles, &c. The din and clatter was kept up nearly all night.

Mr. Jas. W. Blackburn, of Woodford county, and Miss Hallie W. Craddock, youngest daughter of Judge G. W. Craddock, will be married on Tuesday evening next, November 11th, at the Methodist Church, at 8 o'clock.

PLAISANT HOLLOW, Nov. 6, 1884.
Editor Roundabout:

DEAR SIR: The people out here want Nix to explain how that medium went; what it was, come out and brought bouquets, kissed people, &c. They want to know the whole thing.

Yours, SOFT HEAD.

Bridgesport.

The election passed off quietly in this place.

Mr. Able Armstrong remains quite feeble.

Another wedding the first day of January, 1885.

Old Uncle Winston Vaughn, now in his 81st year, is quite ill.

Mrs. Sue Watts, of Missouri, is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Geo. W. Sudluth has returned home from a visit to Louisville.

Daisy Parent and Emma Russell have recovered from their recent illness.

Mrs. Dr. Chinn and Mrs. Laura Flanagan are visiting relatives in Whitchester.

Mrs. Jennie Allen and children, of Lexington, are visiting her father's family.

The present cold weather reminds one very forcibly of the fact that winter is near at hand.

Willie Crockett, of Jessamine county, has returned home from a visit to relatives in their section.

Mrs. Molle Farmer has returned to her home Lawrenceburg, from a visit to her father's family near this place.

Mr. James Smith and wife and Misses Mattie and Mary Lynn Robb, of Mercer county, attended the Dupuy-Crockett wedding last Wednesday.

Messrs. J. C. Major and P. H. Parrent better known as Crit. and Henry, who have been residing in Helena, Montana, for several years, are visiting friends and relatives in this and Anderson counties.

Married.—At the residence of the bridegroom, Mr. Willie Crockett, in Frankfort, Ky., November 5th, 1884, by Rev. Neal, of Shadyside, Mr. Wilder Dupuy and Miss Sue Crockett.

We congratulate the happy pair, and invoke the blessings of heaven on their union.

Antioch.

Sweet potatoes and opossums on hand.

Mrs. Joe Bryant is visiting relatives in Alger this week.

Mrs. Updyke, of Peck's Mill, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Sallie Snell and daughter, Misses, Mrs. Tracy and Mrs. Bryant.

Notwithstanding the weather there was a good crowd at the Sunday-school last Sunday. Why not run that school all winter?

Mr. James Marshall moved into the Lewis neighborhood, from Shelby county, last week. We are sorry to hear that he is in feeble health.

The singing class met at Mr. James Gore's last Sunday night week, at Mr. Spalding's last Saturday night, and at Mr. Geo. Bond's last Sunday night.

We would like to know if Frankfort has all the brains of this country, that we must go there for suitable persons for the Legislature. Why do not the country people unite on some intelligent farmer and elect them as Senator and Representative. Surely Frankfort people would not, or at least would not care to be represented, as the boys say, is fair play.

Our attention has been called several times lately to the fact that there are some young persons who attend the Sunday school and singing class that spend the time in making sport of others present. Such conduct is ungentlemanly and unladylike in any one. We should all remember the old Scotch adage, which says: "Oh! that God the gift which give us to see ourselves as others see us."

Your Stoney Creek correspondent took us to task a few weeks past on a mistake we made. Now "those who live in glass houses should not throw stones." We have been requested to correct the statement he makes in regard to Eli J. A. Purcell, calling and closing his last meeting at Pleasant Ridge without prayer. We are informed by several who were present that Bro. Peters opened the service himself with a prayer and at the close called on a certain brother to close with prayer, who did so, calling on all to sing and during the prayer some in the back part of the house thinking the meeting had closed, rose to leave. Were you back there, brother Cor., or was there two such spirits under your belt that day. We gain our information from some who are members of that church.

Started at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky
as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.
FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 8, 1884.

Mr. Henry J. Ahler, of this city, and Miss Mollie Stoessel, of Bedford, Indiana, will be married at the residence of the bride's father on the 18th inst.

The uncertainty of the result of the election this week has been exciting as well as amusing. When bulletin was put up at the telegraph office, it suited the feelings of most of the follows in the crowd it was all right and the truth, but if it was the other way it was all a lie.

The panels of the handsome brass fender, which has been on exhibition in the show window of Mr. John T. Buckley for the last week, are specimens of the skill of Mrs. Col. R. P. Pepper. It is a beautiful piece of furniture, and the work is executed in a very artistic manner.

There was a lively race between our news dealers on Wednesday between here and Georgetown to get their Cincinnati papers here first. Mr. Barratt's messenger broke his horse down and had to change on the road in coming from Georgetown; but Mr. Marshall made the round trip with his buggy mare and came in ahead, without wearying her very greatly.

Mr. Merritt Riddle, living near Elmvile, just over the Owen line, went out to his barn on Saturday afternoon, about five o'clock, and a short time after some of the family heard a pistol shot in that direction and went out and found he had shot himself through the head. He lived for four hours after, but was not able to speak. He was one of the wealthiest men in that section, and it is thought his mind had been unbalanced for several days.

The Colored Public School was opened Monday with a large attendance, and a first class corps of teachers in charge. In company with the school trustees and several members of Council we visited the school on Tuesday, and found everything running smoothly. The children all presented a remarkably neat and tidy appearance, and seemed determined to make up in their studies during the remainder of the session the two months lost by the unfinished condition of the building.

Mr. John W. Cox, of Belle Point, is the owner of a handsaw that is fully two hundred years old. It was purchased by his great grandfather in London, England, when a young man. He came to this country with Wm. Pen in 1682, bringing it with him, and at his death left it to Mr. Cox's grandfather, and it has been handed down from generation to generation since that time. Mr. Cox's great grandfather lived to be 116 years of age, his grandfather to 106 and his father to 94 years. The two former died in Mecklinburg county, Virginia, and the latter at Midway in this State.

The following is the vote of this county at the election on Tuesday:

PRECINCTS.	CLEVELAND.	ELAINE.
Market-House.	222	255
Peak's Mill.	135	75
Gas-house.	236	314
Cedar Run.	105	53
Linn Creek.	256	44
Courthouse.	248	332
Bloomington.	77	41
Deacon.	107	25
Bridgewater.	116	73
Forks of Elkhorn.	217	73
	1,819	1,227

Butler received one vote at the Court House and Lockwood one at the Gas House, but St. John received votes at all the precincts in the county except Bald Knob, Bloomington and Bridgeport—2 at the Market-House, 1 at Peak's Mill, 1 at the Gas House, 1 at Cedar Run, 5 at the Court House, 1 at Benson, and 3 at the Forks of Elkhorn.

For Congress Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge received 1,738 and Gen. D. W. Lindsey, who was complimented by the Republicans with their votes, received 1,172.

For Member of the Board of Equalization Mr. R. Tolbin received 434 votes, E. T. Long 1,142, John W. Roberts 1,263, Ed. Grant 1, J. W. Milam 1, Frank Halloran 1.

The Democrats will jollify again tonight over the Presidential election.

Capt. Sam. M. Gaines has rented Judge L. Hord's farm, near this city, and will take possession in a short time and remove his family here from Virginia.

The Governor on Thursday pardoned Frank Steele, who was sent to the Penitentiary from Woodford county about a year ago for the killing of W. G. Welch.

Mrs. J. M. Mattingly, wife of late Jno. J. M. Mattingly, of Nicholasville, visited our city Thursday. While here she had a very fine portrait of her husband made at H. G. Mattern's Capital Art Gallery.

Dr. Blayney preached on last Sabbath morning upon the subject of The Fulfillment of the Prophecies of the Bible, Babylon being the theme. On tomorrow morning at 11 a. m. he will continue this interesting subject, giving the destruction of Jerusalem.

First PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Rev. J. Mc. Blayney, pastor.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Hatton.

Editor Roundabout:

DEAR NEPHEW: The people of this part of Shelby county have a new disease so strange that it puzzles the Doctors of Divinity. This malady broke out in this part of Kentucky on the 10th day of October, 1884. Symptoms are such that the most eminent are attacked with the dreadful disease they at once leave home and flee to the city and act very strange. Some of them will actually strike their best friends. They are lavish with money and talk foolish. You know that in cities there are a few men that wear blue collar. These men are said to be these buttons will take one of these poor unfortunate human beings and put him in a big stone house at the foot of Fort Hill, and lock them up all night, while they curse and fight. What a shame that the city daddies allow them to be treated so badly. In a general way, the people of the two Churches located near this place, Zeke Yoem, my opinion is that they are abused severely. This new fever, called circus fever, strikes their human organ, and that is why they act so badly. They are crazy. Now, my dear nephew, you are ready to say that they were drunk, but such was not the case, for they are members of the two Churches located near this place.

Zeke knows all about it. My opinion is that they are abused severely. This new fever, called circus fever, strikes their human organ, and that is why they act so badly. They are crazy. Now, my dear nephew, you are ready to say that they were drunk, but such was not the case, for they are members of the two Churches located near this place. Zeke knows all about it. My opinion is that they are abused severely. This new fever, called circus fever, strikes their human organ, and that is why they act so badly. They are crazy. Now, my dear nephew, you are ready to say that they were drunk, but such was not the case, for they are members of the two Churches located near this place.

I'm in trouble about this terrible scourge. Will you please consult some of the doctors of Frankfort about this matter, and let me learn anything that will do them good, please publish it in your valuable paper.

The above bears so hard on my mind that I can't collect my thoughts in regard to news.

We had a wedding near Hatton October 13th. The parties were Mr. Fred Yocom and Mrs. Sue Mitchell. May they live long and die happy, is the wish of Zeke Yoem.

Died.—On the 17th day of October, 1884, William Lillis, aged seventy-five years, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude. He was an honest, upright man in all of his ways, and left a wife and seven children. May they prepare to meet their father in a better hand.

Have you heard anything of your Aunt Polly Yoem? When last heard from she was musing speeches for Mr. Lockwood. I told you how it would out; allowing her to write for a newspaper. You have done your uncle Zeke wrong.

Strayed, stolen or runaway—Mrs. Polly Yoem. Thereby warn all persons against harboring said Polly or from crediting her on my account, as I will not be responsible for said debts.

ZEKE YOCUM.

An Editor's Experience.

After trying numerous remedies for rheumatism, but without permanent relief, I was advised to use S. S. S., which had given permanent relief to others suffering from rheumatism. After using S. S. S. for a month, I found that the disease was entirely driven out of my system, and a permanent cure secured. This was over a year ago, and since then, even during our most severe weather, with sudden changes, I have never suffered a return of the old attacks, which disabled me from working with me.

It is very unusual, indeed, that I recommend anything to the public in this manner, but I feel it due to your valuable preparation, that has given me such long desired and much needed relief, to state these facts thus publicly. I am sure that for your specific, I shall be able to get a hundred patients work, as the severest attack was in my right arm and hand.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She has used Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Hurstburg, Illinois, a physician, received a benefit from Electric Bitters. I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnlein Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnlein Salve at 25c, per box by Jos. LeCompte.
